

Prayers

Lord, we bring before you a world in need of justice. We hear so many voices clamouring to be heard – the poor, the sick, the bereaved, the ill-treated – and we ask that you will hear their pleas; help us to discern those to which we might respond.

We pray for our government and the leaders and decision makers within the European Union. We pray for a time of quiet reflection, a true understanding of treaties discussed which affects us all

We pray that there will be shelter for the homeless, healthcare for the sick, aid for the poor, loving concern for the bereaved, and hope – hope being established here and now, amid the tangled webs of our mixed motives and the world we have messed up with our selfishness. Help us, Lord, to be part of the answer to our own prayers. Amen.

Personal Prayer

Grant me a voice for justice, Lord, and the courage to use it.

May it be persistent and heard above the clamour of the world, not for my own sake, Lord, but for those whose voices are drowned out, and those whose courage falters in the face of life's unfairness. Amen.

Collect Prayer for the Day

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the king of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

After Communion

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
